Corbett, Harvard's Star Halfback

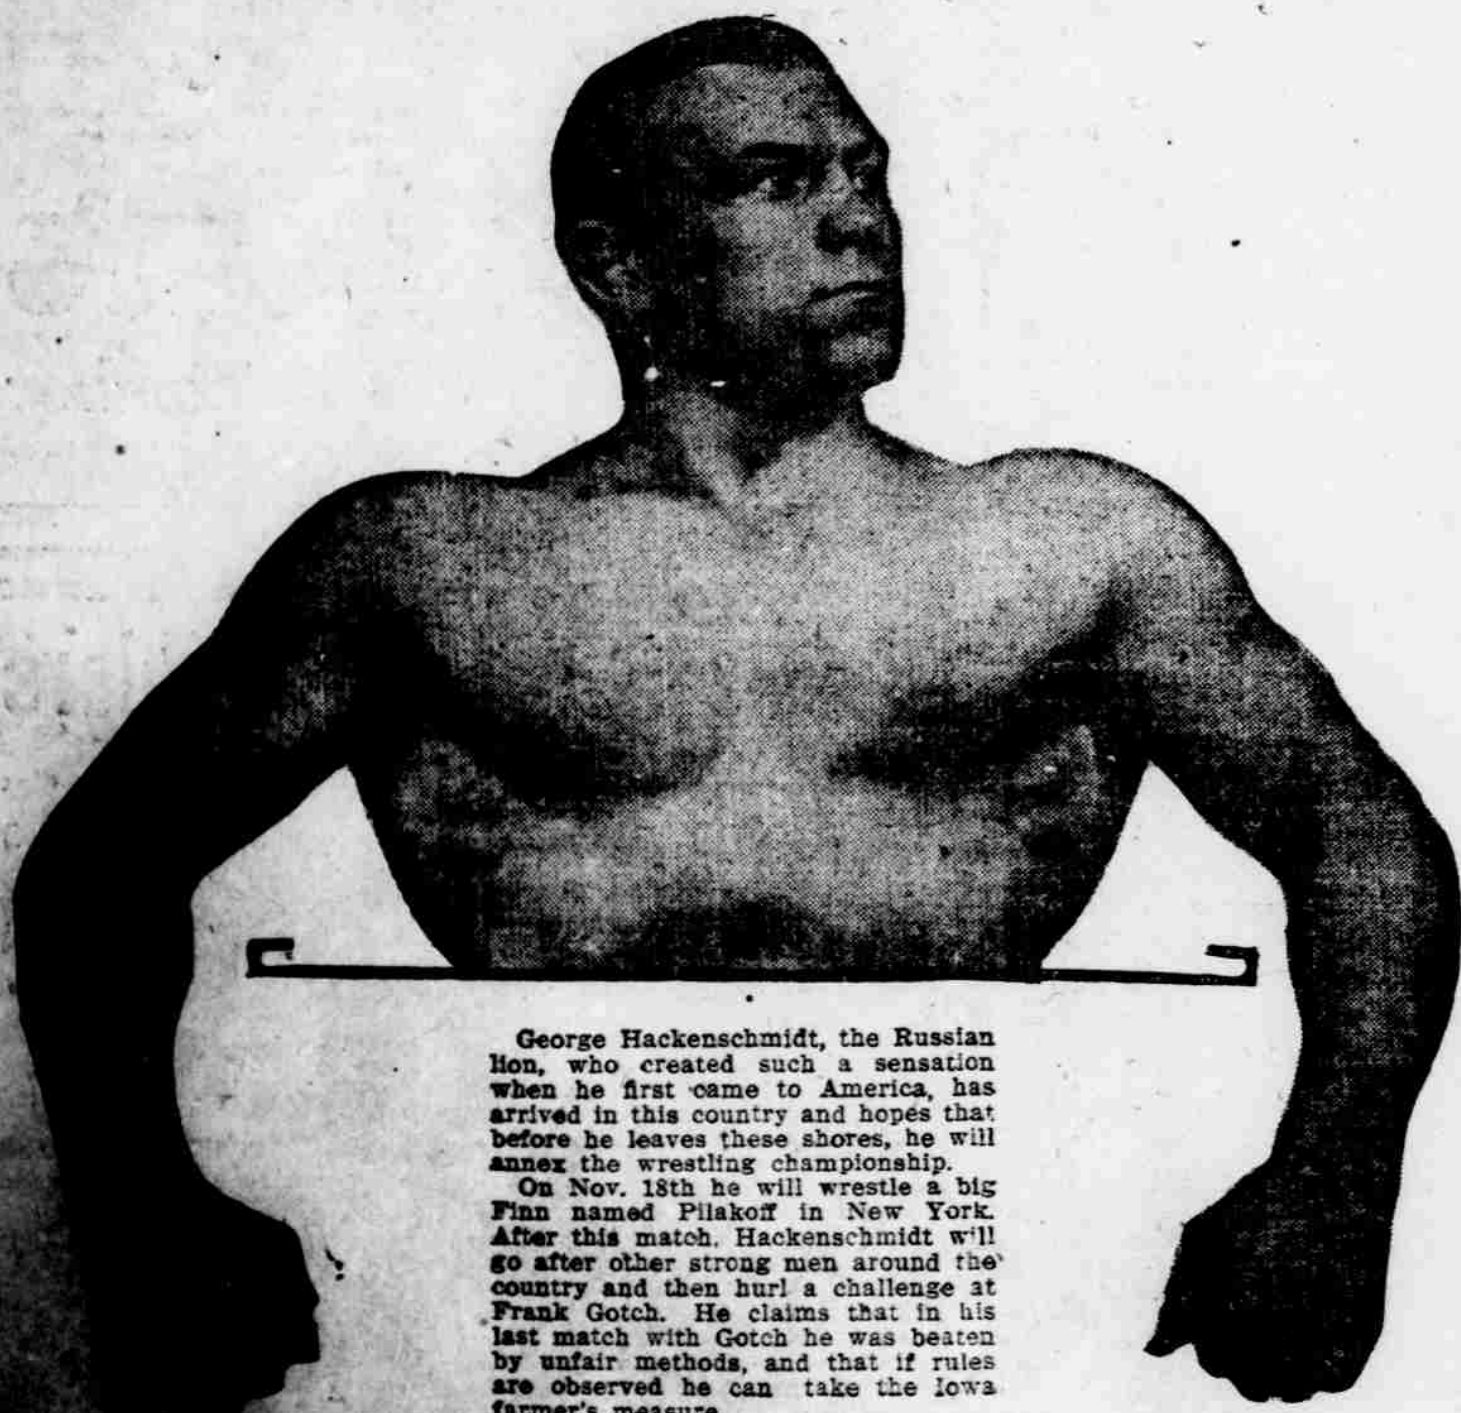

Harvard's star halfback, Corbett, who has proved one of the best kickers in the Crimson aggregation. Time after time, when the Crimson goal was in danger Corbett has saved the day for the Harvard gladiators, by opportune kicks. There is little doubt that he will be picked for the American Intercollegiate all-star team.

He is coming here to take part in the six-day bicycle race, which will be held at Madison Square Garden, New York, December 4 to 10, and has already sent a challenge ahead of him to race for the motorcycle championship.

GEORGE HACKENSCHMIDT, THE RUSSIAN LION, IS BACK IN THE UNITED STATES

George Hackenschmidt, the Russian Lion, who created such a sensation when he first came to America, has arrived in this country and hopes that before he leaves these shores, he will annex the wrestling championship. On Nov. 18th he will wrestle a big Finn named Plakoff in New York. After this match, Hackenschmidt will go after other strong men around the country and then hurl a challenge at Frank Gotch. He claims that in his last match with Gotch he was beaten by unfair methods, and that if rules are observed he can take the Iowa farmer's measure.

HAMILTON FISH, JR., CAPTAIN OF HARVARD VARSITY ELEVEN

NUMBER OF HORSES FAR EXCEEDS EXPECTATIONS

LATE ARRIVALS COME FROM NORFOLK AND LATONIA—ALL HOTELS ARE FILLED WITH OWNERS AND VISITORS TO THE CITY READY FOR THE OPENING TOMORROW.

Several car loads of horses got in from Norfolk yesterday and a special train of ten horse cars and two sleepers from Latonia was side-tracked some time during the night. A total of the horses here for the meeting cannot be made until the late arrivals are all checked up and registered with the secretary. The number far exceeds the expectations of General Manager Strode, who has been put to his wits end to provide accommodations for them.

The hotels were well filled also by last night's arrivals and everything is auspicious for a big opening at Kupfrian Park tomorrow. The officials already here are: Starter Murray, Racing Secretary Smith, Clerk of the Scales Campbell, and Presiding Judge Burke.

Some Noted Horses. There are two horses now at Kupfrian Park waiting for the bugle call that have figured in big turf transactions in the past. One is Horace E., who cost Roy A. Rainey $25,000 as a two-year-old. The other is John Marrs, who cost Paul Rainey $12,000 at the same age. It cannot be claimed for these two that they are now worth the sum of $37,000 which they at one time brought, though at the time the prices did not seem at all exorbitant.

Before the sale of Horace E. for this figure he was looked upon as the best two-year-old of his year. He was a stable companion of Jack Atkin, who later gained fame as the greatest sprinter of the first decade of the twentieth century and at the time Horace E. was thought to be the better colt. Horace E. never justified the price paid for him, as he went amiss and failed to develop the high qualities expected of him. During the last season he has raced fairly well and should be one of the best sprinters at the meeting.

John Marrs was a disappointment also, but is in good form just now and should be heard from at the meeting.

Another horse at the track, who, though only a selling plater when at his best, yet figured in a sensational race, is Beauliere. When this fellow was a two-year-old he was the only starter one day at Belmont Park against the great sprinter, Roseben. The latter horse was a great weight carrier but got in this race under light weight and all of those entered with him except Beauliere were scratched. Davy Johnson, the owner of Roseben, was a heavy bettor and naturally could get no odds against his horse to win, but got the layers to quote him price that the horse would beat the world's time record for the distance seven furlongs. He bet thousands of dollars at even money and won. Roseben ran the seven furlongs in the marvelous time of 1:22, which has never been equalled by several seconds.

Beauliere gave Roseben quite a race for six furlongs and showed an inclination for going a distance which was further manifested as he grew older, for he developed into a long distance runner of high degree. He has raced but little this year, but in his best form he will be hard to beat in the long races.

MORRIS WINNER IN POOL TOURNAMENT

Last night in the pool tournament games now being played at the Pastime pool and bowling alleys on West Romana street, Morris defeated Tonart, the first game by a score of 53 to 46, in a well played game. Each made runs of 10 and 11.

In the second game Green won from Webster by a score of 52 to 38. Green made runs of 12 and 13. Webster's high run was 11. A good crowd watched the games with much interest.
